Skills/Knowledge required to provide patron assistance by Subject Specialists

Employees will demonstrate:

- Thorough knowledge of and ability to teach the use of the literature of their subject area(s).
- Thorough knowledge of and ability to teach the use of databases appropriate to those subjects.
- Recognition of the cross-disciplinary nature of many topics and the importance of drawing on resources in other disciplines.
- Ability to use appropriate technology in teaching the use of library resources, including equipment in the classrooms and software such as PowerPoint and RefWorks.
- Ability to prepare exercises, assignments, handouts, etc., as appropriate to specific classes and to frequently asked questions from patrons.

January 26, 2005–pjj