Karen Myers reported that Reference has a new GA, Brock Morris, who is working with Patricia Kirkwood in Engineering.

Stephanie—Physics is shifting to make room for 4 new computers, 2 Macs and 2 PCs. They are also getting a new white board, making available more collaborative space. If you have patrons needing a place to work, you can send them to Physics. Kathleen Lehman, Physics Librarian, and Stephanie will present a program at the ArLA Conference, on Monday, October 7, at 4:00: Ten Commandments of Circulating Tablets.
>She has information to share on the University of North Texas MLIS program coming to Arkansas. You can also get info from Kathy and Jeff.
>5 Library supervisors are participating in the campus Supervisor Development Program, which is now free. She highly recommends that anyone interested talk to your supervisor about enrolling.

Gale is interviewing students for work/study positions.

Robin—The Fall Festival will be on October 31st. Signup sheets will be posted soon.

David—business as usual.

Jeremy—Chemistry/Biochemistry had 2 student workers quit; he has filled their slots.

Ellen received a Binding shipment today.
>She has one ready for pickup tomorrow or Monday.

Stacy has 8 new student workers. Training is going well.
>She’s getting back to working on the streaming project for concert recordings.
>Since she was appointed to look into what is permissible regarding the Libraries having a book sale, she is meeting with Judy Ganson to figure out what options there are. If you have any experience with book sales for other libraries or state agencies, please let her know. Robin offered to search for articles on the subject.

Bridget had no report.

Lisa—Serials is still implementing Serials Solutions.
>Serials has processed 873 microfiche this month.
>Serials hired Jefferie Renegar. She starts on Monday, September 30.
They are interviewing for the 2nd open position.

Kathy reminded us of several upcoming events:
- University Emergency Guidelines on October 8, 2013, 3:00 p.m., Room 104. Jeff is trying to verify that the presenters are still available then.
- Sexual Harassment Awareness Training on Tuesday, October 22, 3:00 – 4:00 p.m., and Wednesday, October 30, 2013, 3:30 – 4:30 p.m.
- Flu shots October 25, 9:15-11:00 a.m., Room 486. Consent forms are available outside Kathy’s door.
- Staff Health & Benefits Fair November 13, 9:30-1:30 in the Union.

> If you are attending the ArLA Conference, please send your schedule to Kathy for calculation of your work & travel time.

Jimmy—Stacks is very busy, especially since they are now pulling items we own that have been (mistakenly) requested through ILL.

Lynaire—the Periodicals Reading Room and the computer lab have been full.

> Periodicals has 3 returning work/study employees and 3 new ones.

Committee Reports

The Staff Concerns Committee now has an e-mail address: scc@uark.edu.

Next month’s regular meeting time would fall during the Fall Festival. The meeting will be rescheduled so we can participate in the festivities. It’s tentatively scheduled for October 24, 2:00 p.m., Room 486.
