We continue to work on ideas for the newsletter. Angela Hand and David Schmid ran for Staff Senate and were elected. The committee continues to discuss the ongoing snack machine issue.

We are not making much progress in our efforts to get what we want in the machines but it is not because we haven’t tried.

Some of the staff are asking when position reclassifications will be considered again. We do not have the answer yet but will look into it.