The University of Arkansas Libraries seek a librarian to perform original and complex copy cataloging activities in the Cataloging Acquisitions Department and participate in digital projects. The successful applicant will also manage the Special Formats Cataloging Unit, which is part of the Cataloging Acquisitions Department consisting of five faculty and ten support staff. To view the department’s annual report, please visit: http://libinfo.uark.edu/webdocs/cataloging/DeptAnnualReport2011.pdf

The librarian is responsible for performing cataloging of internet resources, electronic and print serials, monographs, microforms, and special non-music media formats, such as CD-ROMs, DVDs, VHS videos, and streaming media; managing the cataloging of theses and dissertations, including coordinating with the Graduate School on the processing activities and receipt and preparation of theses and dissertations; working on digital projects, including evaluating or developing metadata schemas; and supervising one full-time library technician.

Qualifications. Required: Master’s degree from an ALA-accredited program; knowledge of AACR2, OCLC, MARC, LCSH, and LC classification. Evidence of performance, scholarly engagement, and active participation in professional organizations sufficient to meet the criteria for appointment at the rank of Assistant Librarian.

Preferred: At least one year of experience with original and copy cataloging, preferably in an academic or research library; experience using an integrated library system, preferably Innovative Interfaces; familiarity with cataloging non-book formats; familiarity with Arabic and/or other non-Roman languages; and experience with non-MARC metadata schemas.

Salary: Tenure-track, twelve-month faculty appointment at the rank of Assistant Librarian / Assistant Professor. Salary: $45,000.

Benefits: Relocation allowance available. Benefits include TIAA/CREF, Fidelity Mutual Fund, or the Arkansas Public Employees Retirement System; 22 days of annual leave; tuition reduction; and health insurance.

Background: The University of Arkansas places students first by enhancing academic programs, creating an engaging campus life, reducing obstacles, enhancing diversity, improving graduation rates, and marshaling the expertise of the faculty, staff, and students. The University is classified by the Carnegie Foundation as a research university with very high levels of research activity (RU/VH). The University provides a superior campus landscape and environment while designing and building world class facilities. The funding for research awards and research expenditures continues to grow and so do the academic programs offered. The University Libraries share in the stewardship of the University’s goals and takes responsibility for the health of the research and teaching collections as well as programs that further support the academic mission. For more information, visit the Libraries’ home page (http://libinfo.uark.edu). The University of Arkansas campus (http://www.uark.edu) in Fayetteville, Arkansas, with a student enrollment of more than 23,000, is the flagship campus of the University of Arkansas System. With a population of approximately 420,000, the northwest Arkansas region is home to two Fortune 100 company headquarters. This thriving region offers numerous cultural venues, such as the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, the Walton Arts Center, and the Shiloh Museum of Ozark History. (http://www.collegetownprofile.com/arkansas/universityofarkansas/index.html)

Application deadline and contact information. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Completed applications received by November 8, 2012, will receive full consideration. Late applications will be reviewed as necessary to fill the position. Send letter of application, résumé, and names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three current references to libhrofc@uark.edu to the attention of Jeff Banks, Head, Library Human Resources Department, University of Arkansas Libraries, 365 N. McIlroy Avenue, Fayetteville, Arkansas 72701-4002.

The University of Arkansas is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity institution committed to achieving a culturally diverse faculty. Persons hired must have proof of legal authority to work in the United States. All applicants are subject to public disclosure under the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act.