GOBI Alerts Quick Guide

Your subject librarian has set up email alerts on the GOBI system. GOBI is the book vendor who manages our various approval plans and firm orders.

1. Email Messages

Depending on the settings for your alert, you will receive email messages weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly with a link to view new titles matching the search criteria.

GOBI Notification: classics - 8 items for period 2/7/2015 - 2/21/2015

The results are available to you as a GobiAlert user, and are retrievable for 12 months, or until they are manually deleted.

These notifications created for Beth Juhl can be viewed by clicking this link or copy and paste the following URL into your browser:

Any information associated with this email is for private use only. Copying and distribution of GOBI contents are prohibited.

Click the link to access your review list.

2. Reviewing the List

The link will take you to a list in GOBI. You should not need to log in.

Each book listing will provide basic publication information as well as price, publisher series, and the affiliation of the author. On the right column will be information about how many libraries have already purchased the item, and sometime links to tables of contents or other supplemental information.

3. Recommending a Book

Click the highlight bar on the left of the screen to select an item you wish to recommend. When you have completed review of the books on each page, click the → Recommend link at the top of the screen.

The screenshot shows the Gobi3 web interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Notification List' and 'Recommend' buttons. The main content area displays book details for 'PLUTARCH AND HIS ROMAN READERS.' by Philip A. Stadter. The details include author, publisher, ISBN, binding, content level, subject headings, and approval notes. A blue arrow points to the 'Library Note: Add...' link. The right sidebar contains links for 'slip sent (2/25/2015)', 'GobiTween (7 Books/13 Slips)', 'library activity (32 sold)', and 'table of contents'. The bottom of the page shows another book listing for 'YANNIS' by Giannis Ritsos.

4. Adding Notes

You might also wish to add a note to your librarian about the priority of the book.

For example, 1 = first priority, 2=desirable, 3=useful if funds allow.

To do so, click the Add... link next to Library note. Your initials will become part of the note.
