Justification
 As a special topic honors colloquium, this co-taught course was successfully offered in fall 2013 (Eval_rate the course: 4.4). Students' class performance and their high quality essays showed that they were able to cross discipline boundaries and integrate the knowledge of history, economics, and political sciences into one coherent entity. Transforming this newly created course into a catalog one will provide students who develop an interest in fields like Asian studies/History/international trade more opportunities to specialize. Furthermore, the newly created courses will both meet the demand of increasing number of History Major students and strengthen the curriculum in Asian Studies, History, Political Science, and Economics.

Additional Notes
 Cross-listed with HIST 4533 & PLSC 4533

Even though the Approve, Edit and Modify buttons appear, you will not be able to take any actions unless you are a member of the Course and Program Committee.

You can also use the Filter List link at the top menu to filter your list to specific department or program abbreviations:

The screenshot shows the COURSELEAF interface for 'Pages Pending Approval'. A red arrow points to the 'Filter List' link in the top navigation bar. A modal dialog box is open, showing a 'Filter by:' field with the text 'hist' entered. The background shows a table of course entries with columns for 'PAGE' and 'USER'. The 'PAGE' column lists course IDs and titles, such as 'GEOG 4333: Pollution of Lakes and Rivers'. The 'USER' column lists 'jatullis'. On the right, there is a 'Page Info' sidebar with details for 'ECON 4533: China's Foreign Trade History, Policy, and Theory'. At the bottom, there is a 'PAGE REVIEW' section with a 'View Changes By: All Changes' dropdown and a 'University of Arkansas' banner. Below the banner, the text 'Course Inventory Change Request' is displayed, with 'Delete Course' and 'Modify Course' buttons.

8. There isn't really a logout button; just close the window or tab to exit.
